HOMILY OF HIS HOLINESS
POPE FRANCIS
FRIDAY, 5 NOVEMBER 2021

Remembrance. To remember [in Italian, ricordare], means “to return to the heart, to return with the heart”. Ri-cordare. What does the Sacred Heart of Jesus make us return to? To what He did for us: the Heart of Christ shows us Jesus who offers Himself, it is the compendium of his mercy. Looking at it – like John did in the Gospel (19: 31-37), it comes naturally to us to remember his goodness, which is freely given, which can be neither bought nor sold; and unconditional, it does not depend on our actions, it is sovereign. And it is moving. In today’s haste, in the midst of a thousand errands and continuous worries, we are losing the capacity to be moved and to feel compassion, because we are losing this return to the heart, that is, this memory, this return to the heart. Without memory one loses one’s roots, and without roots, one does not grow. It is good for us to nurture the memory of who has loved us, cared for us, and lifted us up.

THANKSGIVING
ENVELOPES

Envelopes for the new financial year will be available to collect from the narthex next weekend. If you cannot find your assigned box of envelopes please contact the parish office on Ph: 0416 923 484.

SCAM ALERT

Please be careful of messages requesting any type of financial assistance.

On Thursday we were notified by a number of parishioners who had received a text message claiming to be from Fr Melvin Llabanes requesting urgent help.

This was a scam and we sincerely hope those contacted did not send any money.

If you are unsure of a message (claiming to be from the parish priest), please contact the parish office.
